@TEMPLEMGYM

Alumni, family and friends, we are excited to welcome you to tonight's collegiate meet featuring the New York Alliance and Temple University! This weekend is the fifth annual Fred Turoff Invitational, commemorating Fred's 41 years as Temple University's Men's head coach.

During tonight's meet, we will be featuring five gymnasts and counting the top four scores on each event to determine the overall winner.

Each of the collegiate teams here tonight is self-funded and raise all operating costs, so donations are welcome. Use the website below or scan the QR code to join our stick campaign. Thank you.

During his 41 years as the head coach of the Temple Owls Men's Gymnastics Team, Fred Turoff produced 18 EIGL/ECAC title teams, 94 individual conference champions and 5 NCAA event champions. He retired as head coach after the 2017 season, and now serves as assistant to his former pupil, Jesse Kitzen-Abelson, who took over the head coach position in 2017-18. Fred started Philadelphia Boys' Gymnastics in 2003 as Temple University Boys' Gymnastics Team at Temple and moved the program to our current facility in 2015.
